

1. For non-emergency issues such as noise violations, cars on property, kids on 4 wheelers, can ordinance 28-7.1 be used. How could this be expanded to cover additional issues?
2. Businesses have loitering, activity problems - What can business owners do? Will posting “no loitering” signs on the building expedite code enforcement?
3. Mediation and intervention - What types of issues would mediation engage in and is there a time line for this activity to be available city wide?
4. See something-take a picture-forward to Officer Meeks tmeeks@cityofflint.com. Exactly what does this entail?
5. Owners are fined for violations on their building and grounds-who do such reports go to and how does it work? Are drug houses still being padlocked?
6. Is it possible for a member of Blue Badge to handle the police side of the citizen’s patrol to allow for a variety of nights of the week for performing the patrol? Would it be possible to find a way for patrollers to retain the radios from week to week?

§ 28-7.1 AUTHORITY TO PERSONS OTHER THAN POLICE OFFICERS TO ISSUE PARKING VIOLATION NOTICES.

The Chief of Police of the City of Flint may authorize persons other than police officers of the City of Flint to issue parking violation notices as defined in Section 742(8)(a) of Public Act 66 of 1979, being MCLA § 257.742(8)(a), and MSA § 9.2442, for parking violations designated as civil infractions and committed contrary to the provisions of the Flint City Code.

The Chief of Police shall obtain a receipt from each non-police officer to whom a parking violation notice book has been issued upon a form created for this purpose.

No person shall be authorized to issue parking violation notices unless he has received training in the pertinent procedures and ordinances of the City of Flint at the Flint Police Regional Training Academy, and works under the supervision of a person who, even though not regularly employed by the Police Department, has been fully trained as required by the Michigan Law Enforcement Officers Training Council Act.
