

Blight Elimination and Vacant Lot Reuse: Strategies for Flint Neighborhood Leaders

October 10, 2016, 6:00 pm - 8 :00 pm

Hosted at Genesee County Habitat for Humanity (101 Burton St., Flint, MI 48503)

FREE TRAINING PROVIDED BY:

Genesee County Habitat for Humanity, and Center for Community Progress

Join your Flint friends and neighbors on October 10th for a free training on blight elimination and vacant lot reuse strategies for Neighborhood Leaders!

*Come to learn, be inspired and share your expertise and neighborhood success stories with property law and policy expert Sara Toering from the Center for Community Progress
(communityprogress.net) and vacant land reuse visionary Evaine K. Sing from Pittsburgh PA based GTECH Strategies (gtechstrategies.org).*

Property Law 101 for Neighborhood Leaders:

Gain a deeper understanding of the basic property law principles and legal history that should inform community-oriented efforts to remediate vacancy and abandonment and strengthen communities.

Creative, Achievable Reuse Strategies for Vacant

Land: Small but tangible improvements often build the momentum needed to make bigger changes in communities – even better when these efforts are led by dedicated residents who have been connected to resources for actionable, realistic strategies for lot-by-lot revitalization. This training will provide an overview of GTECH’s work on the ground in Allegheny County including the Lots to Love web-based toolkit for resident-driven change.

Agenda at a Glance